Special Session Meeting

This Tuesday, July 17 at 7pm

In response to the sermons on the most important Commandment to “Love God and love your neighbors”, we now have a project we can support! Our neighboring church, Holy Trinity, is sponsoring a Syrian family of five that arrived in Canada last May. As sponsor, they have found them a place to rent, a job for the father, the oldest girl has been attending grade one and they are all taking ESL classes. The church is responsible for rent for a year, medical expenses and reimbursing the government for airfare. This is quite an undertaking! Session has agreed to ask our congregation for financial help for 10 months. Please donate by noting on the ‘Special’ line of your envelope “for Refugees”. This family has been through hardships for the past 3 years with the youngest being born in a UN refugee camp. Thank you in advance for your kind generosity!
